

ENVIRONMENTAL CLEANING IN HEALTHCARE FACILITIES

ENVIRONMENTAL CLEANING IN HEALTHCARE FACILITIES

Certificate of Attendance

TARGET AUDIENCE

Site Managers / Area Managers / Contract Managers / Operations Managers / Salespeople in the cleaning sector / Professionals in healthcare

ABOUT THIS COURSE:

One-day seminar to understand the importance of the correct cleaning procedures in healthcare facilities in association with Infection Control.

MODULES

- History of sanitation
- Basic Microbiology
- Hospital-approved chemicals & consumables
- Disinfection methodologies & infection prevention control
- Healthcare-associated infections (HAI)
- The chain of infections
- Routes of transmission
- Critical control points & the prevention of cross-contamination
- Cleaning specifications in medium-risk and high-risk areas
- Terminal cleaning procedures
- Theatre cleaning procedures
- Inspections & audit tools

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Marietjie Swanepoel is a subject matter expert within the cleaning industry with more than 33 years of expertise. By constantly updating course material and ensuring the highest standard practices through the supplier, contract cleaning, and public sector networks, Marietjie remains on the pulse of hygiene standards across the healthcare and cleaning industry in Southern Africa. More than 6 000 delegates have attended her seminars and workshops over the last 20 years.

CONTACT US: HEAD OFFICE

www.csggroup.co.za | skillsinfo@csggroup.co.za | +27 11 794 2000

shaped around you.